PLAINTIFF SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION'S OBJECTIONS TO DEFENDANT'S TRIAL EXHIBITS AND WITNESS DESIGNATIONS

Pursuant to the Court's Scheduling Order, Dkt. 140, Plaintiff Securities and Exchange Commission submits the below objections to Defendant Mueller's April 19, 2024, proposed trial exhibits, witnesses, and deposition designations, Dkt. 143-1.

As an initial matter, the SEC notes that defendant Mueller's April 19, 2024, filing, Dkt. 143-1, is simply a refile of his previous, October 6, 2023, filing, Dkt. 114. As a result, defendant Mueller failed to incorporate the Court's November 6, 2023, Order, regarding defendant Mueller's deposition designations, Dkt. 126; the Court's rulings at the November 28, 2023, Final Pretrial Conference on the parties' motions in limine; and the Court's Order granting in part and denying in part the SEC's motion for summary judgment, Dkt. 138. The SEC's objections incorporate the Court's prior rulings as well as the SEC's previous objections.

The SEC's objections are based on the current status of this matter. The SEC reserves the right to supplement, correct, or clarify its objections or to withdraw an objection, including based on any future decisions or orders of this Court.

10. Nevertheless, the SEC understands that the Court previously denied the SEC's motion and that the Court will allow the presentation of testimony. Pretrial Conf. Tr. at 40.

II. Deposition Designations

The SEC objects to defendant Mueller's deposition designations as hearsay. The Court ruled in its November 6, 2023, Order that defendant Mueller cannot both offer live and deposition testimony from Scott Allen, Dennis Concilla, Andrew Federico, and defendant Mueller himself. Dkt. No. 126. Nor can defendant Mueller offer testimony by deposition of any witness, including Eric Dandridge, Nathan Spradlin, Ken Abramson, and Craig Rushforth, without a further showing that the witness is unavailable, particularly in light of the nation-wide subpoena power provided both parties by 15 U.S.C. § 77v(a). Id. Out of an abundance of caution, the SEC is providing counter-designations and objections for the three witnesses whose testimony the Court has not previously excluded in its rulings on the parties' motions in limine and who Mr. Mueller has not already indicated he plans to present via live testimony.³

III. Trial Exhibits

The SEC objects to defendant Mueller's proposed trial exhibits as set forth below.

In certain cases, the SEC has objected as hearsay to exhibits the SEC also marked as trial exhibits. The SEC has objected to documents for which no hearsay exception is applicable if the document is offered by defendant Mueller for the truth of the matter asserted but would be admissible if offered by the SEC for the same purpose. For example, the SEC marked as P-30 defendant Mueller's Responses and Objections to the SEC's First Set of Interrogatories. Defendant Mueller marked the same document as D-73. Defendant Mueller's Interrogatory responses would not be hearsay if offered by the SEC under Rule 801(d)(2) but would be hearsay if offered by defendant Mueller for the truth of the matter asserted.

The SEC has also objected to certain documents as hearsay that both parties marked as trial exhibits and for which no hearsay exception applies. For example, the SEC marked as P-359 the resume of Nathan Spradlin. Defendant Mueller marked the same exhibit as D-23. The SEC marked P-359 for identification only and potentially to refresh Mr. Spradlin's memory. The document is nevertheless an out of court statement for which no hearsay exception applies.
